Dahlen labels each post and beam.

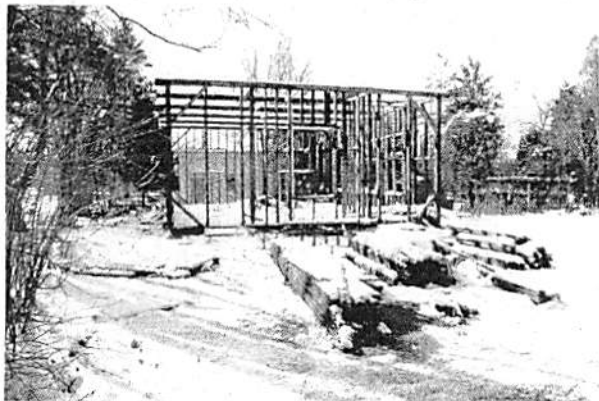

Hugh Dahlen carefully labels and removes a beam.

Manion Hall, a one time one room schoolhouse will become Hugh Dahlen's new home on another lot.

Manion Hall is being dismantled. The historic building is being moved and restored by Hugh Dahlen.

Just a skeleton of Manion Hall remained Monday after it was dismantled to be moved to a new location. The site will be used for the new Ellison Center for the Arts.
